

Gunshots to head cause woman's death

HERMITAGE, Mo. (AP) — A Hickory County convenience store clerk who apparently was abducted and killed last week died from two gunshot wounds to the head, according to a preliminary autopsy.

County Coroner Rusty Boller said Wednesday medical experts estimate Trudy Darby died at 11:45 p.m. Saturday. Police found her nude body in the Little Niangua River on Monday.

Police said they had no suspects.
