

Officers from the Missouri Highway Patrol and the Hickory County Sheriff's Department investigate the site they believe is the spot where a gunman shot Trudy Darby of Macks Creek to death. Mrs. Darby's body was apparently thrown off the Erickson Ford low water bridge in the background and was recovered approximately three-fourths mile downstream.